for a Merry Music Christmas
Creating Music is one of Life's Profoundest Joys!
WURLITZER®
PIANO

The happiness and companionship found in making music are pleasures that cannot be measured. It's a chance to express yourself...a relaxing experience. Music helps you face emotional stress...helps you attain stability...gives you a feeling of accomplishment. Someone at your house learning to play the piano may or may not become a concert artist—but everyone can experience the pleasure that comes from making music himself. When the magic of music enters your home, you'll please yourself and your family when you select a Wurlitzer piano.

Bring the Magic of Music to Your Home with this Masterpiece of Timeless Beauty

Beautifully fashioned by award-winning designer K. Gunnar Benson NSID, this piano reflects today's trend toward elegance in contemporary styling. You'll treasure the magnificent tone and enjoy years of enduring pleasure. The faultlessly balanced scale—the "heart and soul" of the piano—produces a more brilliant treble, full resonant tones and a smoother and deeper bass response. The vibrant strings, remarkably sensitive to the touch, provide immense tonal range—from the lowest pianissimo to the most brilliant fortissimo. No wonder more people buy a Wurlitzer piano than any other.
